1 // Independence, MO The first stop on our midwest tour will be in Kansas City to tour the Kansas City Negro Leagues Baseball Museum. Experience a timeline of American and Latin baseball history, see detailed baseball histories of several countries, and learn about some of the significant baseball players who crossed cultural lines. Then this evening we'll catch our first ball game with the Kansas City Royals taking on the Cleveland Guardians.

Venture to the 103rd floor where we will look out at the stunning views for up to 50 miles and four states away. Then no trip to Chi-town would be complete without a deep-dish pizza dinner at Giordano's.

2 // Dubuque, IA Since they built it, we will come to visit the legendary Field of Dreams. Talk with a "Ghost Player" before taking a self-guided tour of the property! Then this evening we will enjoy a special kind of tour with a Progressive Historic Dinner around Dubuque.

4 // Chicago, IL Take some time this morning to explore Navy Pier during some free time. Then this afternoon we will head to the famed Wrigley Field to watch the Chicago Cubs play the New York Yankees. This evening, explore Chicago's scenic shores with a relaxing sunset cruise around Lake Michigan on Tall Ship Windy, Chicago's official Tall Ship.

3 // Chicago, IL Experience Chicago from a birds-eye-view at Flyover Chicago at Navy Pier. Flyover's exhilarating flying journey will leave you feeling like you've reached the unreachable with unique perspectives, the sensations of flight and complete sensory immersion, as you soar over, under, and through the city's most epic places. This afternoon you'll take a self-guided tour at the Willis Tower Skydeck.

5 // St. Louis, MO This afternoon we will learn about exactly how the King of Beers is brewed with a guided tour of the Anheuser-Busch factory. The tour is jam-packed with history as well as stunning views of the campus property while you learn all about the life of an Anheuser-Busch beer, from seed to sip!

6 // St. Louis, MO The adventure is not over yet! We could hardly dream of visiting St. Louis without a trip to visit the St. Louis Arch. Ride all the way to the top of the arch for an incredible view of the skyline. Then this afternoon we will take in the heartbeat of the city from ground level with lunch on your own at Ballpark Village and then we think you'll be fully inspired by the city that you'll be cheering on the St. Louis Cardinals play the Seattle Mariners at Busch Stadium.

7 // Home Our midwest journey may be finished but the sounds of the ballpark, the crack of the bat, and the roar of the organ will still be ringing in your memory as we hit the road back towards home!
