lot to offer and the Chapel is gorgeous! Lunch will follow at the Pickin Porch Grill located in the Branson Craft Mall, with a little time for browsing while we are there. From there we head to the Sight and Sound Theater for the dazzling performance of Queen Esther. This show will be ending soon so this is your last chance to witness the breathtaking production and incredible stage effects of one of the greatest stories in the Old Testament. Tonight we finish our day with the Presley's Country Jubilee. The first theater ever built on the Highway 76 entertainment strip hosts this legendary family show. The Presleys have spent years entertaining audiences with their country and gospel music performances and their slapstick comedic antics.

3 // Home Stop by a local Pecan Farm on the way home to stretch our legs and shop for some tasty treats. As we journey on, homeward-bound, we can reflect on all we have seen these last few days together!
