

GIFT OF CHRISTMAS

DECEMBER 13-15, 2024

This trip to Dallas is small but mighty when you visit Holiday at the Arboretum, the George W. Bush Presidential Library, and witness the breathtaking spectacle of The Gift of Christmas at Prestonwood Baptist Church.

1 // Dallas, TX The miles will go by quickly today as we journey down south. Get to know your fellow travelers over a delicious lunch along the way!

2 // Dallas, TX This morning, visit the Holiday at the Arboretum, one of Dallas' favorite holiday traditions. Stroll the garden to see the 25-foot-tall, elaborately decorated Victorian-style gazebos that represent each of The 12 Days of Christmas. The European-style houses in the Christmas Village are on display with lighted trees, shop owners passing out samples, and live entertainment! Next, we will pay a visit to the George W. Bush Presidential Library. This Museum offers a moving exhibit on September

11, 2001, a replica Oval Office, and a host of other artifacts and exhibitions from the Bush Presidency. Then, this evening, rediscover the true meaning of Christmas as we arrive at the Prestonwood Baptist Church for their unique production of The Gift of Christmas featuring the Living Nativity. This visually stunning, multimedia experience makes the Christmas story come alive, complete with flying angels, a thousand voices and instruments, amazing costumes and fabulous sets. Enjoy dinner before the show.

3 // Home We'll travel back home feeling uplifted and inspired after our visit to Dallas and full of the Holiday Spirit.
