1 // Amarillo, TX Travel to Amarillo, the perfect place to get a big taste of the lone star state. Begin with a visit to the restored 1887 Victorian-style Charles Goodnight home. Discover the legend of this remarkable pioneer of cattle ranching known as the "father of the Texas Panhandle."

2 // Amarillo, TX This morning, take a glimpse into the history, cultures, fine arts and crafts of the Pueblo and Plains Indian people at the Kwahadi Kiva Indian Museum. Enjoy a hearty Texas-sized lunch at a local restaurant. Experience Bill's Backyard Classics where you will be taken back in time with the array of classic vehicles that span from the 1920's - 2012. Grab yourself a dessert from The Ruffled Cup Treat Stop before one more treat for the evening, a thrilling performance at the beautiful Pioneer Amphitheater. Carved out of and nestled into a natural basin in the majestic Palo Duro Canyon, the Texas Outdoor Musical is the official play of the state of Texas! The spellbinding lighting and visual effects, tell the story of Texas in a truly memorable way!

3 // Home Feel like a kid again and take a ride on a thirty-six-horse and two-chariot carousel. Then enjoy lunch that will fill you with good ole' southern tastes. Relax on the way home after experiencing the very best of the Old West!
