1 // Branson, MO Spring heralds the end of winter... the beauty of plants coming back to life and the sounds of nature awaking from slumber fill the air. We will also hear the sounds of talented performers as we head off to Branson to welcome in spring. We will end our first evening with 'David' at the Sight and Sound Theatre. From a poor shepherd boy to a powerful king, David is the story of one man's challenging journey to follow God, despite on-going wars with other nations, and the struggles within his own heart.

2 // Branson, MO "Round, round, get around (I get around)"... the Beach Boys first sang this popular song on May 11, 1964, and today we will hear it live at a Beach Boys Tribute Show. Lunch after the show will be in order, before stopping at the Dewey Short Visitor Center for a brief history film and great views of the Table Rock Lake dam. After spending some time looking at the lake, now we will get on it. The Showboat Branson Belle has a cruise, dinner, and show combo that is sure to be a great way to spend the early evening hours. We will round off our exciting day at the top of the Branson Ferris Wheel. Relocated from the Chicago Navy Pier in 2016, it provides some great views looking out over the city of Branson.

3 // Home We've got one more stop to make as we head out today. Finley Farms and Ozark Mill is a beautiful example of repurposing an old building; incorporating the charm of its past into the functioning upscale dining space it is today. We will enjoy an early lunch here before we resume our journey home.
