1 // Seattle, WA Your cruise vacation to Alaska begins with a flight to Seattle for a one-night stay before setting sail tomorrow.

2 // Set Sail Discover Seattle's iconic landmarks during a Seattle City Tour this morning. Set sail through Puget Sound aboard the Royal Caribbean Voyager of the Seas cruise ship. Once aboard, meals and entertainment are included.

3 // At Sea Sailing the Inside Passage offers opportunities to see whales, seals, eagles and other wildlife against the backdrop of forests and fjords. Peaceful waters make this a great place to cruise during our first day at sea.

4 // Juneau, AK Surrounded by water, forest and mountains, Juneau is the most remote and arguably the most unique state capital in the nation. Juneau features a variety of optional shore excursions including whale watching cruises, flight-seeing adventures, and tours to Mendenhall Glacier.

5 // Skagway, AK The gateway to the gold rush, Skagway's history is fascinating and brutal. With carefully preserved buildings, the downtown is brimming with history and serves as the hub for many optional shore excursions.

6 // Sitka, AK Sitka offers small-town appeal with a unique blend of Russian, Tlingit and American history. Snow-capped peaks create some of the state's most postcard-worthy scenes.

7 // At Sea Another day at sea on an Alaskan cruise is pure magic. You can watch eagles from the deck or relax inside with stunning views all around. It's a peaceful, awe-inspiring journey through nature's wild beauty.

8 // Victoria, BC An evening port stop in Victoria allows a few hours to explore this British-flavored capital city's bustling Inner Harbor or Fisherman's Wharf.

9 // Home The adventure to scenic Alaska ends in Seattle where we will disembark the cruise ship and board a return flight home.
