

There's something truly special about grandparents sharing the magic of the holidays with their grandchildren, and today is filled with the kind of memories that will be treasured for years to come. The holiday spirit is in full swing today as we kick off the festivities with a matinee performance of How the Grinch Stole Christmas at the Great Plains Theatre — a heartwarming holiday classic brought to life on stage that is sure to delight everyone from the youngest travelers to the young at heart! As the evening arrives, we'll climb aboard the Smoky Valley Railroad Dinner Train for a magical and festive dining experience on the rails — delicious food, wonderful company, and the charm of a classic train ride all rolled into one unforgettable night!
