1 // Overnight Flight The adventure begins as we board our flight toward the historic and captivating British Isles!

2 // London, England Discover the timeless charm and modern spirit of London as your adventure begins. A city tour brings the grandeur of this magnificent capital to life before we gather this evening for a wonderful included dinner.

3 // London, England Today begin with a visit to the magnificent Windsor Castle, the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world and the beloved home of the British Royal Family. This afternoon, step inside the legendary British Museum, where an extraordinary collection spanning two million years of human history and culture will leave you absolutely breathless.

4 // Set Sail Today we board the Carnival Miracle and set sail for nine incredible days exploring the stunning coastlines of the British Isles!

5 // At Sea Enjoy a glorious day on the open water as the British Isles beckon! Explore the Carnival Miracle's world-class entertainment, dining, and onboard activities, and soak in the sea breeze before our first exciting port of call!

6 // Holyhead, Wales Our port today is the charming Welsh town of Holyhead, where dramatic coastal scenery and rich history come together beautifully. Explore the medieval grandeur of Caernarfon or Conwy Castle, venture through fascinating Victorian-era mining tunnels, or discover one of the world's oldest railway companies while taking in the timeless charm of North Wales.

7 // Liverpool, England Welcome to Liverpool, the legendary birthplace of The Beatles. Follow in the footsteps of rock and roll history, stroll the iconic Royal Albert Dock, or explore the city's stunning cathedrals and bustling waterfront. Venture further to the medieval city of Chester or the scenic lakes of Windermere.

8 // Glasgow, Scotland Discover Glasgow's storied waterfront along the River Clyde the world's greatest ship building cities. Explore historic landmarks, wander the elegant Victorian streetscapes, and breathe in the fresh Scottish air.

9 // Belfast, Northern Ireland This morning, perhaps choose to visit the world-renowned Titanic Belfast, built on the very shipyard where the great ship was constructed, or marvel at the striking St. Anne's Cathedral. Beyond the city, optional excursions to the rugged Giant's Causeway and the breathtaking Glens of Antrim showcase some of Northern Ireland's most spectacular scenery.

10 // Dublin, Ireland Arrive via the scenic harbor of Dún Laoghaire and discover a lively capital city of Dublin which is rich in history, culture, and unmistakable Irish charm. Stroll the elegant Georgian streets around Merrion Square, visit the National Gallery of Ireland, soak in the energy of the vibrant Temple Bar district, or relax in St. Stephen's Green. Dublin is a city that never fails to steal your heart!

11 // Cork, Ireland Our final port of call brings us to Cork, Ireland's beloved culinary capital and vibrant harbor city. Perhaps choose to visit the iconic Blarney Castle for the chance to kiss the legendary Blarney Stone, or explore the breathtaking landscapes of Kerry and Killarney.

12 // At Sea Savor every last moment on the open sea as our incredible British Isles adventure draws to a close.

13 // Home We arrive back in England to board our flight home from London to home, carrying with us a lifetime of memories from the castles, coastlines, and culture of the magnificent British Isles. Until next time — cheerio!
