4 // Amarillo, TX After a good night's sleep we return early to the Albuquerque Balloon Fiesta field for our second opportunity to see the sky filled with wonderful shapes and colors. Walk through the launch field and talk with pilots and their crews. It's not hard to see why this event draws so many people, from full time balloon chasers to first time spectators. We have to start for home, but not before visiting the Kwahadi Museum of the American Indian. Here we are not only treated to dinner, but we will learn a great deal from the beautiful museum, designed to preserve and share the Kwahadi culture.

5 // Home Sadly, our fiesta is over, but the sights, sounds, and even tastes of the "Land of Enchantment" will linger.
